

Call for papers

VICTORIAN EVENTS

4-5th September 2024
University of Stirling

As part of the international, flightless conference Event 2024 <<https://www.event2024.org/>>, the University of Stirling will be hosting a hub for in-person papers, panels and roundtables, co-organised with the Scottish Centre for Victorian and Neo-Victorian Studies.

Our theme is Victorian Events, which can be interpreted broadly. We welcome 20-minute paper and panel proposals that speak to any aspect of the general CFP available on the Event 2024 website <<https://www.event2024.org/call-for-papers/>> and we would also encourage proposals focused on:

- Exhibits, exhibitions and openings
- Lectures and public performances
- Imperial events
- Local/national events or incidents
- Literary events – scandals, sensations and bestsellers
- Occult meetings and séances
- Celebrity and press events
- Protests and gatherings
- Tourism
- Anniversaries, centenaries and jubilees
- Legal trials

Given the international form of the conference, we also welcome proposals that focus on global Scotland in the 1830-1910 period.

While we welcome proposals on any of the above topics, all papers or panels that engage with the 1830-1910 period will be considered.

Proposals should be submitted via the conference website by 12th October 2023 <<https://www.event2024.org/call-for-papers/>>. If you have any questions, please contact Dr Michael Shaw <michael.shaw@stir.ac.uk>
